VI. DISCUSSION

A. Juliann Lowe – Eligibility for Licensure as an LPN

Ms. Lowe previously applied for licensure by examination, was issued a license number and pocket card inadvertently and prior to examination. The licensing agency rescinded the license number but discovered that Ms. Lowe was employed as a nurse. Ms. Lowe's application was then denied. She reapplied for licensure by examination as was denied by Board vote again. Ms. Lowe was present at the Board meeting and told the Board that she didn't remember whether she tested or not. The Board informed Ms. Lowe that she may reapply and will be made eligible to test, but that she should seek a psychological evaluation and prepare for a personal appearance before the Board after passing the exam but prior to licensure.

B. Carolyn Sue Ellison – Eligibility for RN licensure after revocation of her LPN

Ms. Ellison did not appear. The Board discussed her situation and considered the likelihood of her eligibility for licensure as an RN based on her revoked LPN license, and concluded that she would likely not receive a license to practice but that she is eligible to apply as an RN.

C. Debra Robertson- Quarterly Meeting

This was a scheduling error and will be set for the October meeting.

VII. BOARD DIRECTOR REPORT

Sean Gorman presented to the Board an update on the RN renewal cycle. As of the meeting date, 29,819 of approximately 92,000 currently licensed RNs have renewed already. Most have renewed online, and the IPLA is encouraging the use of the automated online renewal process.
